The democratic speakers at the meeting Wednesday evening in opposing E. H. Biernbaum, for representative, could find no fault with his previous record except that they accused him of handling all the offices of the county. Whether or not Mr. Biernbaum has lent his brains and energy to any office of the county excepting that of Probate Clerk we are not in a position to say, but it seems to us that 2, man who has the capacity to aid and council the conduct of the multitudincus affairs of a county certainly speaks well for his ability and we assert that the voters of Mora county will make no mistake in placing the duties of representative in Mr. Biernbaum's

W. H. Andrews should receive a very large majority over his opponent for Delegate to Congress, O. A. Larrazola on Tuesday next. There cannot be the slightest doubt that as between the two men Mr. Andrews can and will accomplish more for New Mexico than Mr. Larrazolo.
